

Horse Rustling on Bardstown Road

A horse has been stolen! Sometime during the weekend of November 4th, the Triple Crown winning horse Affirmed was heisted from the front of the John Conti Coffee Company's headquarters, located in downtown Buechel.

The Gallopalooza horse was last seen on his concrete pad on Saturday around noon. Police have been contacted and have no suspects to date.

The horse was a crowd pleaser and hometown favorite of the Buechel neighborhood. Children have been seen walking past the empty slab, crying and asking for the equine by name.

A reward has been issued by the company, for the return of their beloved Affirmed, and the arrest of the "varmint that took our horse", says owner John Conti.

Anyone with information regarding the disappearance, should contact the police or John Conti Coffee Company at 502-499-8600.
