The United States top Republicans know good coffee. That is why they have chosen to serve “The Best Coffee In Town®”... even if the town is Washington D.C.

Mark Nethery, John Conti Coffee Co. Master Roaster, received the news that John Conti Breakfast Blend was chosen over all the other coffees in the nation to be served at George W. Bush’s Inaugural Celebration.

“We are very proud and excited to be selected.” Reports Mr. Nethery. “Breakfast Blend is a rising star in our stable of Specialty Coffees.”

The order came from Mr. Ted Jackson, President of English Emprise, another Louisville based company, whose involvement with the Presidential Campaign and the Republican Party is obviously far reaching. English Emprise handles the distribution of Maker’s Mark Coffee, which is also a John Conti produced product.

John Conti adds, “We have worked very long and hard to import and roast only the very best product available anywhere. It is gratifying that the President of the United States of America will again be enjoying a great cup of John Conti Gourmet Coffee.”

Other dignitaries that have recently enjoyed John Conti Gourmet Coffees while in Louisville, are Vice President Dick Cheney, President Bill Clinton, Madeline Albright, Mikhail Gorbachev, and The Duchess of York. With great pride and skill, John Conti gourmet coffees are handcrafted and small-batch artisan roasted in Louisville, Kentucky.

John Conti Coffee® Co. currently serves over 5,000 office, restaurant and institutional customers via its extensive route network throughout Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Tennessee and West Virginia. The company is the leading importer and roaster of high quality gourmet coffees for offices, restaurants, supermarkets and specialty stores.
